

Hey, Miss Spider

There's a spider on my knee and she's crawling over me.

Oh what, oh what should I do?

Should I brush her on the floor and sweep her out the door?

Should I shake hands and say "How do you do?"

Hey Miss Spider, want some apple cider?

How about a cookie or two

Well, I'd like to be polite and treat this spider right,

She's a living thing and she's got feelings too.

Now she's crawling on my tummy and I'm feeling kind of funny.

Oh what, oh what should I do?

Should I give a little giggle when her hairy legs go tickle?

Gosh I wonder if a spider's ticklish too.

Hey Miss Spider, want some apple cider?

How about a cookie or two

Well, I'd like to be polite and treat this spider right,

She's a living thing and she's got feelings too.

Now she's crawling on my chin and I'm tryin' to keep a grin.

Oh what, oh what should I do?

Should I give a little sneeze? (ah choo) and blow her in the breeze?

Should I hold my breath until I'm turning blue?

Hey Miss Spider, want some apple cider?

How about a cookie or two?

BUT WAIT! Now she's crawling out of sight with a smile so polite

Guess she knows I'm a living thing with feelings too.
